Glomont CPA Exam Review

"I recommend this book highly as one of the 10 most important 'must read' books published this year," Robert Plotkin, Founding President, World Trade Center San Diego. "Three Steps to Wealth & Financial Security - All That Glitters Isn't Gold" is a back to basics, easy to use guide to reassert financial control and secure your financial future. The book draws on real world examples that husband-and-wife authors attorney Gary Laturno, Esq. and Victoria Kuick, MBA, have encountered in counseling over two thousand homeowners in financial distress since 2007. As a result, the book will be an easy read for people who find financial matters confusing or even frightening. The authors' straightforward guidance and recommendations will help many take charge of their financial futures. Comments by Readers: I read your book last night. I'm incredibly impressed! It's a huge undertaking to present an enormous wealth of REALLY important and helpful information in a streamlined way...but you guys did it! And, I think your readers will really appreciate the genuine tone and straightforward approach—life changing stuff. Great job! I see this book distributed in high schools, colleges (law schools particularly—some lawyers are not great when it comes to financial matters), vocational schools, and the like. I hope you're aiming to reach the masses with this one—the subject matter is so salient right now, and this information is really resonating with people. Jennifer Manganello, Esq., University of California, Hastings College of the Law I just finished reading your book. Outstanding! I love the unique way it was written in PowerPoint format—original, straightforward, and easy to follow. The information the book contains, and how it is explained, makes it stand out. You do not allow the reader to blame others or make excuses about their financial situation. You tell them to look in the mirror, take responsibility, and you show them that money problems are not hopeless but fixable. The stock and real estate investing sections are informative and easy to understand. You take the complexity out of stock market investing. You show real estate investors the pitfalls to avoid. Readers will especially benefit from how you compare and contrast real estate investing with the stock market and other investments —

bonds, precious metals and cash. It's evident the book was written from firsthand experience, making it truly authentic. I am impressed both by your credentials and your experience counseling over 2,000 homeowners in financial distress since 2007. This book cuts to the core of what people need to know and do to put their financial house in order. I highly recommend your book! Read it and you will substantially increase your financial I.Q. Dory Laramore, Certified Registered Tax Preparer, and author of Get Your Finances Right: The Foundation for Success "Three Steps to Wealth & Financial Security" is well written, concise and provides a wealth of financial advice for every American. The authors ask and answer a number of profound questions. What are the lessons of the housing crisis? Why are savings rates in the United States so low? Why do so many retire on Social Security only? Why do so many mismanage their financial affairs? How do we put our financial house in order? What do we need to know and do to be financially secure? Understand the mistakes that so many made and continue to make. Fine tune your financial plan and money management skills. Recommendation: Read the book! Money management, financial planning, and wealth building are mandatory subjects not electives. Andrew J. Sussman, Esq., Partner, RSR Law Group, San Diego, California

Think about famous divorce cases that hit the headlines. Yes, she got millions of dollars. But the lawyers also got millions of dollars. Sure, the husband paid both his and her legal fees, but every dollar that went to the attorneys and the accountants, appraisers, and other expert witnesses, was a dollar gone from the marital pot. What if, instead of the soap opera court litigated divorce, wife had communicated and negotiated with husband for a business partnership dissolution? 1. Both parties would have more money. 2. There would be less

Online Library Cpa Uganda Past Paper Examination

acrimony, less stain on everyone, including the kids. In order to successfully divorce with a business approach, you need: 1. An attitude adjustment from divorce to dissolution, from soap opera to business, from win-lose to win-win. 2. Business oriented attorneys and advisers. 3. A basic understanding of business, finance, and accounting. 4. Knowledge of both business and inter-personal communication techniques. 5. Contracts and agreements that pass muster business-wise in that they are clear, easily enforceable, and even-handed. That's what "Divorce with a Pen, Not a Sword" advocates and teaches- with practical advice, war stories, and step by step how-to's. However, before you can be successful in divorcing with a pen instead of a sword, energy must be considered. Look again at those high profile divorce cases. There are lots of subconscious programs at work controlling the behavior of both husband and wife. Otherwise, those divorces would have been a matter of course, easy, no acrimony. What causes them to escalate into such battles? The money you say. If it were only a matter of the money, there would be compromises. She wants $5,000,000 and the cocker spaniel; he wants to pay only $500,000, but will agree to pay $3,000,000 and allow doggie visitations. No. It's not the money. There are feelings of abandonment, anger, revenge, and getting even. The reactions to such feelings lead to hostility and litigation, escalations, and refusals to compromise so that the only solution is what a judge, an outsider, ultimately decides. "Divorce with a Pen, Not a Sword," deals with those subconscious programs- understanding and setting them aside, allowing a business approach to work for both parties. Leatrice discovered early on in her law practice of minding other people's business that she could intuit solutions for her Clients. She would just "know" the most helpful approaches and words to help her Clients. She began to focus on these feelings. She began to realize that she was feeling energy. Just as everyone feels better with some people than with others, better in some places than in others. People and places have an energy to them which can be felt. With good feeling energy comes intuition. With good feeling energy comes acceptance of Law of Attraction as promoted by such films as "The Secret" and "What the Bleep Do We Know?" With good feeling energy comes awareness of the Higher Force Energies inside everyone that inspire and empower. "Divorce with a Pen, Not a Sword" is based on the premise that there is a Higher Force Energy within every person that can be deliberately accessed: 1.To inspire the deliberate attraction of what is wanted, rather than just defaulting to what is not wanted. 2.To empower the breaking free of subconscious programs that dictate litigation instead of business, war instead of peace. Check out Leatrice's website, www.SeeMovement.com ("See"="Successful energy empowerment"). "Divorce with a Pen, Not a Sword" is a marriage of business principles and energy psychology. It promotes individual access to Higher Force Energies to enlighten and empower, to motivate and inspire, and to successfully end or re-define marriage in peace and harmony- by taking a business approach to divorce: Negotiation, partnership dissolution, communication, and peace, rather than litigation and war- a divorce with a pen, not a sword.
