A Bible Study of Proverbs Chapter 12--Book 2

Philip Graham Ryken mines the book of Exodus for knowledge of God's character and instruction. Ryken's commentary moves readers to rejoice at God's work in the life of everyone who is on the path to spiritual freedom.

What Is Biblical Theology?

Years ago, the author had a startling realization. Theologians and pastors have long taught on the glory of God and its central importance in the Bible. However, because he was living in East Asia, it also dawned on the author that this sort of talk about God's glory, praising Him, and magnifying His name was simply another way of talking about honor and shame. When the author looked at most theology and ministry-related books, he found that honor and shame seemed to be treated differently. Anthropologists talked about honor-shame, but theologians largely focused more on legal metaphors. The author could see both themes in Scripture but couldn't find help as to how to bring them together. This study was developed in order to address this gap and bring those themes together. Desiring God

In Exodus 34 Moses asks to see God's glory, and God reveals himself as a God who is merciful and just. James Hamilton Jr. contends that from this passage comes a biblical theology that unites the meta-narrative of Scripture under one central theme: God's glory in salvation through judgment. Hamilton begins in the Old Testament by showing that Israel was saved through God's judgment on the Egyptians and the Caananites. God was glorified through both his judgment and mercy, accorded in salvation to Israel. The New Testament unfolds the ultimate display of God's glory in justice and mercy, as it was God's righteous judgment shown on the cross that brought us salvation. God's glory in salvation through judgment will be shown at the end of time, when Christ returns to judge his enemies and save all who have called on his name. Hamilton moves through the Bible book by book, showing that there is one theological center to the whole Bible. The volume's systematic method and scope make it a unique resource for pastors, professors, and students.

Show Me Your Glory

Kingdom through Covenant is a careful exposition of how the biblical covenants unfold and relate to one another—a widely debated topic, critical for understanding the narrative plot structure of the whole Bible. By incorporating the latest available research from the ancient Near East and examining implications of their work for Christology, ecclesiology, eschatology, and hermeneutics, scholars Peter J. Gentry and Stephen J. Wellum present a thoughtful and viable alternative to both covenant theology and dispensationalism. This second edition features updated and revised content, clarifying key material and integrating the latest findings into the discussion.

The Thessalonian Epistles

For over 40 years, J. I. Packer's classic has been an important tool to help Christians around the world discover the wonder, the glory and the joy of knowing God. Explaining both who God is and how we can relate to him, this thought-provoking work seeks to transform and enrich the Christian understanding of God. Ebook edition includes both Knowing God and the Knowing God Study Guide.

Exalting Jesus in Matthew

Saved or searching, we all need to be reminded of God's interest in us individually and His love for us personally. That's where your story comes in. Stories of how God reaches into our lives today with love, grace, strength, healing, and hope remind us that He is alive and powerful—and that He still wants all people to know Him. But maybe you've been a Christian since childhood and you think your faith story isn't all that exciting. Or maybe you feel like your story is too personal to share. Or perhaps you just don't know exactly what to say or where to begin. That's where "GET PERSONAL: The Importance of Sharing Your Faith Story" comes in. This little book offers guidance on how to put what matters most into words that encourage others and glorify God. You have a story to share that could help someone better understand who Jesus is and how knowing Him makes a difference. Are you willing to share it? In GET PERSONAL, you'll learn: - Why we must share our faith stories. - What your personal faith stories are. - How to share your stories more effectively and without sounding preachy, religious or just plain weird. - That you can be respectful of someone else's worldview without wavering on your own.

God's Glory in Salvation Through Judgment

Insightful and heart-warming, this classic book is written for those who seek to know God better. It unfolds life-impacting, biblical truths and has been called a "soul-stirring celebration of the pleasures of knowing God."

The Message of Salvation

Most persons will say, "I'm not designed to pray like most people." Or persons will say, "Will you pray for me because I know you can get a prayer through." When prayer, all along has been a form of communicating with God, was created for everyone. Our Father God has often said, throughout the Bible, "seek Me," "call unto Me," or "draw nigh unto Me." Those words were invitation to everyone. In this book, the Believer will be exhorted to pray with much intercession. Their faith will be encouraged through the life of Rahab, a harlot of Jericho who lived among the lowliest of the walls of the city. She lived along the Dung gate. Rahab was one who had no destined right to the God of Israel; however, because of her faith she bypassed a call of prayer and went into action by interceding between her nation and the nation of Israel. How did she do that? She hid two of Israel's spies and that act of intercession saved her bloodline from destruction! Whether the Believer sees themselves as the lowliest person along the wall, as Rahab may have, or at the highest point on the wall, they will be encouraged in this reading. Encouraged to stay ALONG and strengthened ON THE WALL to watch over the prayers that will save a generation unto a legacy of salvation! I believe, as you read this book, you will: 1) believe GOD's WORD; 2) stand on a firm foundation, the WORD, 3) see the salvation of others from a life of destruction; 4) use GOD's WORD as a counteractive to the enemy's tactics; 5) be confident in the Holy Spirit's activity in your life as you yield to Him; and 5) see the glory of God's work in your life! You will find yourself actively participating in direct communication with God as you actively intercede! Glory! As you turn the pages, my prayer is that you MOVE along the wall of your family, in an alert fashion, as you pray and intercede in conjunction with our Heavenly Father's invitation. You'll know, without a shadow of doubt, it is HIM Who has drawn you into a lifetime of communication with HIM: prayer. I believe as we do such, we will truly live out the Word of God that declares in 2 Chronicles 7:14, "if My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land."

My Story Is God's Glory

Mission is not the ultimate goal of the church. Worship is. Missions exist because worship doesn't. Worship is ultimate.' John Piper's contemporary classic draws on key biblical texts to demonstrate that worship is the ultimate goal of the church and that proper worship fuels missionary outreach. Piper offers a biblical defence of God's supremacy in all things, providing a sound theological foundation for missions. He examines whether Jesus is the only way to salvation and issues a passionate plea for God-centredness in the missionary enterprise, seeking to define the scope of the task and the means for reaching 'all nations'. Let the Nations Be Glad! is a trusted resource for missionaries, pastors, church leaders, youth workers, seminary students, and all who want to connect their labours to God's global purposes. This third edition has been revised and expanded throughout and includes new material on the 'prosperity gospel'.

Does God Desire All to Be Saved?

So many of us desire freedom - the freedom that is promised to us when we decide to follow Jesus. The freedom from the burden of our sin, the need to be "good enough," anger, jealousy, and envy. Even though we are believers we would be ashamed to say that we don't always experience peace, contentment, and joy in our life. We are looking for the grace that God has so graciously given to us to be real in our life Breaking Pride is an eBook based on one simple truth: In order to walk in God's grace we need to tear down the the walls of pride. A lot of believers, even though saved by God's grace, are still walking in pride rather than walking in His grace. Knowing what pride is and learning to identify pride in your life is the first step to overcoming a life filled with pride. Pride is rooted in fear and leads to anger, jealousy, and envy. Sin isn't keeping us from having a relationship with the Lord, it's our pride. So many of us long to have an authentic and REAL relationship with the Lord, and we long to have the fruit of the spirit filled in our heart. Our desire is to achieve these fruits through will power. But we do not even realize that the pride that lives within our heart is what is blocking the fruit of the spirit from living within us. In Breaking Pride you will learn to identify different areas of pride in your life. Filled with encouragement, Breaking Pride will take you through a practical reading of what pride may look like in your life. Let's stop building walls of pride and start building the foundation of grace within our lives

Saving God's Face

God's Salvation in Life

Good Enough for God? Recent surveys indicate that the vast majority of Christians, those claiming to be born-again, believe that their salvation is at least in part dependent upon their behavior and actions. Yes, they believe Jesus died for their sin, but once they accept Him as their savior, they believe they must still meet a certain standard to be "good" enough. If that is true, then what is that standard and how do you know when you have met it? The Church has tried to answer these questions for centuries and it always results in religious and legalistic bondage. So what is the answer? It begins by asking the right question. It is not, "What must we do?" but rather, "What did Jesus do?" By understanding the Apostle Paul's revelation of what Jesus did from the book of Romans, you will never again wonder if you're meeting the standard.

God's Glory in Salvation through Judgment

"This book will seek to recover a more biblical theology of sin and sanctification. In particular we will take a fresh look at the writings of John Newton."--p. 18.

God's Glory Revealed in Christ

Does God truly love all persons? Most Christians think the obvious answer to this question is, "Yes, of course he does!" Indeed, many Christians would agree that the very heart of the gospel is that God so loved the whole world that he gave his Son to make salvation available for every single person. This book shows that one of the most popular and resurgent theological movements in the contemporary evangelical church--namely, Calvinism--cannot coherently and consistently affirm this vital claim about the love of God. While some Calvinists forthrightly deny that God loves everyone, more commonly Calvinists attempt to affirm the love of God for all persons in terms that are compatible with their doctrines that Christ died only for the elect--those persons God has unconditionally chosen to save. This book shows that the Calvinist attempts to affirm God's love for all persons are fraught with severe philosophical and theological difficulties. Calvinism, then, should be rejected in favor of a theology that can forthrightly and consistently affirm the love of God for all persons. Nothing less is at stake than the very heart of the gospel.

Pierced by the Word

We need good preaching—preaching that challenges us by God's Word and brings the comfort that comes from God's promises. Yet many of us rely solely on others to preach to us and are not benefitting from the kind of preaching that should be most consistent and personal—preaching to ourselves. Note to Self is a practical introduction to this daily discipline. Pastor Joe Thorn delivers fifty brief, devotional chapters that model preaching the gospel to ourselves and its practical implications. Readers will be challenged by the book's direct, personal exhortations to apply the law and the gospel to their own lives. Part of the Re:Lit series.

Extravagant Grace

Are There Two Wills in God? Divine Election and God's Desire for All to Be Saved In this short, theological essay, John Piper builds a scriptural case that God's unconditional election unto salvation is compatible with God's genuine desire and offer for all to be saved. Helping us to make sense of this seemingly paradoxical relationship, Piper wisely holds both truths in tension as he explores the Bible's teaching on this challenging topic, graciously responds to those who disagree, and motivates us to passionately proclaim the free offer of the gospel to all people.

Living for God's Glory

The Bible's Big Story

Does the Holy Spirit do the same things now and in the New Testament times that He did in Old Testament times? Volume one in the NEW AMERICAN COMMENTARY STUDIES IN BIBLE AND THEOLOGY series for pastors, advanced Bible students, and other deeply committed laypersons addresses this challenging subject. God's Indwelling Presence asks and explores to answer: What are the spiritual differences and similarities between Old Testament and New Testament believers? Did God dwell in Old Testament believers as He does in New Testament believers? Were Old Testament believers born again (that is, experience regeneration)? What do the words indwelling and regeneration mean? How is the Holy Spirit's ministry similar or different during Old Testament and New Testament times? Users will find this an excellent extension of the long-respected

NEW AMERICAN COMMENTARY.

Coronavirus and Christ

Salvation is a well-worn Christian term. We think we know what it means. But biblically speaking, salvation is one of those big terms that encircles a number of others, each of them reflecting a stunning facet of God's grace in Jesus Christ. Philip Ryken has chosen nineteen biblical passages that take us deeper into the biblical teaching on salvation. The centerpiece of each passage has a familiar ring: election, deliverance, redemption, expiation, reconciliation, regeneration, justification, adoption, sanctification and glorification. But each facet directs us by turns to a glory far exceeding itself. If this world is indeed lost, then understanding and proclaiming the grammar of God's gracious salvation exceeds by bounds the significance of a Human Genome Project or any other great human endeavor. A passion for the grandness of God's work shows through as Philip Ryken illuminates the contours of the message of salvation.

A Gracious and Compassionate God

Selected from sermons delivered by C. S. Lewis during World War II, these nine addresses offer guidance and inspiration in a time of great doubt. These are ardent and lucid sermons that provide a compassionate vision of Christianity.

Tulip

With rhymes and Bible verses, children are taken through salvation history from creation onwards.

God's Promises for Tough Times

Only monergistic grace can fully preserve the sovereignty, glory, and majesty of God. This book defends monergism by examining the rich heritage of Reformed theologians and confessions, by demonstrating the biblical support for monergism, and by responding to Arminian and modified views of synergism.

Let the Nations be Glad

Shawntaria Franklin understands the triumphs and trials of being a woman from raising a child to chasing her dreams, all while she awaits her husband. She truly believes that we still have an opportunity to rise above any circumstances that life throws our way. Ms. Franklin invites you to dive into her book and explore her life story and lessons she learned on spirituality, restoration, family, motherhood, forgiveness, relationships, and healing. Her story is God's glory!

The Holy Spirit and Glory of God

Edited by David Platt, Daniel L. Akin, and Tony Merida, this new commentary series, projected to be 48 volumes, takes a Christcentered approach to expositing each book of the Bible. Rather than a verse-by-verse approach, the authors have crafted chapters that explain and apply key passages in their assigned Bible books. Readers will learn to see Christ in all aspects of Scripture, and they will be encouraged by the devotional nature of each exposition. Exalting Jesus in Matthew is the second volume in the series and is solely authored by Platt (best-selling author of Radical). Other projected contributors to the series include notable authors such as Russell D. Moore, Al Mohler, Matt Chandler, Francis Chan, Mark Dever, and others.

A look at the fact that a virtuous woman is a crown to her husband but a shameful wife is as rottenness in a man's bones. A look at the fact that the thoughts of the righteous are right but the counsels of the wicked are deceit. A look at the fact that the wicked use their words to kill but the mouth of the upright will deliver them. A look at the fact that God overthrows the wicked but causes the house of the righteous to stand. Exodus

"This is a time when the fragile form of this world is felt. The seemingly solid foundations are shaking. The question we should be asking is, Do we have a Rock under our feet? A Rock that cannot be shaken—ever?" —John Piper On January 11, 2020, a novel coronavirus (COVID-19) reportedly claimed its first victim in the Hubei province of China. By March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization had declared a global pandemic. In the midst of this fear and uncertainty, it is natural to wonder what God is doing. In Coronavirus and Christ, John Piper invites readers around the world to stand on the solid Rock, who is Jesus Christ, in whom our souls can be sustained by the sovereign God who ordains, governs, and reigns over all things to accomplish his wise and good purposes for those who trust in him. What is God doing through the coronavirus? Piper offers six biblical answers to that question, showing us that God is at work in this moment in history.

Weight of Glory

The book of Jonah is arguably just as jarring for us as it was for the ancients. Ninevah's repentance, Jonah's estrangement from God and the book's bracing moral conclusion all pose unsettling questions for today's readers. For biblical theologians, Jonah also raises tough questions regarding mission and religious conversion. Here, Daniel Timmer embarks on a new reading of Jonah in order to secure its ongoing relevance for biblical theology. After an examination of the book's historical backgrounds (in both Israel and Assyria), Timmer discusses the biblical text in detail, paying special attention to redemptive history and its Christocentric orientation. Timmer then explores the relationship between Israel and the nations—including the question of mission—and the nature of religious conversion and spirituality in the Old Testament. This New Studies in Biblical Theology volume concludes with an injunction for scholars and lay readers to approach Jonah as a book written to facilitate spiritual change in the reader. Addressing key issues in biblical theology, the works comprising New Studies in Biblical Theology are creative attempts to help Christians better understand their Bibles. The NSBT series is edited by D. A. Carson, aiming to simultaneously instruct and to edify, to interact with current scholarship and to point the way ahead.

Breaking Pride

Pierced by the Word takes up thirty-one subjects as unique as "How to Be a Refuge for Your Children," "How to Drink Orange Juice to the Glory of God," and "Embracing the Pain of Shame." Some are longer, some shorter, like the real-world conversations they so closely resemble, and each comes from the fertile mind of John Piper and is written in his own inimitable style. Together, the readings will lead to a deeper understanding of God and a cleaner, clearer relationship with Him. Most of all, Piper's approach shows how meditating on God's powerful Word can affect every aspect of our lives. Whether you're steeped in the Word of God or newly acquainted with it, these thirty-one meditations will penetrate to the deepest reaches of your soul. With a contagious passion, John Piper awakens us to violent prayer, piercing pleasure, and fearless faith. From the Hardcover edition.

Knowing God

The Organic Aspect of God's Salvation

As Christians, we are the generation where many Bible prophecies are being fulfilled right now. When darkness covers the earth and thick darkness is over the peoples, but the LORD rises upon us and his glory appears over us. We are going to see the knowledge of the glory of God unveiled to His people to its fullness that the earth is filled with the knowledge of the glory of God like the waters cover the sea. The knowledge of the glory of God is the full gospel described in Acts 26:18. It is not only we receive forgiveness of sins as Christians but also receive our heavenly inheritance. The glory of God belongs to spiritually mature Christians. They have grown in the perfection of their salvation from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to the power of God. They are empowered by the Holy Spirit and overcome the evil one and become spiritually mature in Christ. They enter the kingdom of heaven and receive their eternal life NOW on earth. The eternal life is the eternal glory, which is also our heavenly inheritance to restore God's image and likeness on His children. Through the baptism of the Holy Spirit, Christians shall enter the kingdom of heaven to receive their inheritance through the Christ and continue living a Spirit-empowered life, and being transformed into His likeness with ever-increasing glory just like Jesus who is the image of God. Ultimately, we become victorious and glorious Christians and are prepared ourselves to be the bride churches for Jesus' second coming. In the book, you will find out* The Holy Spirit who is our best teacher and guide. He helps us in every part of our salvation from the beginning to the perfection and from the conviction to the transformation. (Topics include God's Origin Intent of Creation for Mankind, The Devil and Spiritual Warfare, Names of the Holy Spirit, a Promised Gift, a Divine Person, the importance of the Baptism of the Holy Spirit, How to be Baptized with the Holy Spirit, the Definition of Born Again Christians) * The Knowledge of the Glory of God leads us to our destiny - that is to enter the kingdom of God to receive our eternal life through His son, Jesus. It is God's calling that we all transform into His image and likeness to restore His glory as His original intent of the creation of mankind. (Topics include the glory realm, the Knowledge, Revelation, Mystery and Manifestation of the Glory of God, the Spiritual Maturity, God's Calling for His Eternal Glory, Eternal Life, Heavenly Inheritance) * The Practice of the Glory of God illustrates essential steps to enter into the glory of God. It is an awakening call to the churches to rise up and be the end-time bride church. (Topics include Sanctification, Holiness, Righteousness, Suffering, Unity, Wait upon the Lord, Rest, the Bride Church, the Angels, and the End Time Warfare)*Tabernacle and Worship brings us face to face encounter with Jesus so that we can fellowship with Him and hear His voice. (the True Meaning of Worship, Elements of Tabernacle, Thanksgiving, Praise, Blood of Jesus, Word of God and our High Priest, Jesus) As Christians, we are created to worship God and restore the glory of God in our spiritual life. That is our purpose and destiny.
