My Revision Notes: OCR A Level Law

The aim of this book is to provide an accessible text for students, covering each of the elements in the OCR GCSE (9-1) Computer Science specification J276. It will be invaluable both as a course text and in revision for students nearing the end of the course. It is divided into eight sections, each broken down into manageable chapters of roughly one lesson. Sections 5 and 6 of the textbook cover algorithms and programming concepts with a theoretical approach to provide students with experience of writing, tracing and debugging pseudocode solutions without the aid of a computer. These sections would complement practical programming experience. Each of the eight sections cover one of the major topics in this course, and each subtopic contains sample examination questions from past papers, which can be set as homework.

Mussolini and Italy

This is the Paperback Edition; our original Printed Revision Cards and a Kindle version are also available. Learning the right facts for your exams is key to obtaining top grades, and a few reactions or definitions can make the difference between grades in an exam. Revision Cards are a great way to ensure that you learn all of the key facts that you need to know, and we honestly believe that these Revision Cards are the most concise and precise that you will find. These Revision Cards are for the new exams (for courses starting in 2015 or later), and are designed specifically for the OCR A Chemistry A Level (Year 1) and AS Level. They include 40 cards covering the key Reactions, Definitions, Equations and Reaction Mechanisms that you need to know for your exams (plus a few other important bits). Each Revision Card covers a single topic and gives only the facts that you need to learn off-by-heart for your exams. They have been carefully written to ensure that they do not contain any waffle - just the key facts that you need to learn. These cards were written by a group of experienced teachers, tutors and examiners, who have decades of combined teaching experience, thousands of hours of tuition experience and have marked thousands of exam papers as examiners/team leaders. They have painstakingly trawled through module specifications, textbooks and exam mark schemes to produce a set of Revision Cards which cover the key facts required for the OCR A exams. They focus specifically on areas where students tend to perform badly in exams.

OCR(A) A2 Physics Student Unit Guide: Unit G484 The Newtonian World

Student Unit Guides are perfect for revision. Each guide is written by an examiner and explains the unit requirements, summarises the relevant unit content and includes a series of specimen questions and answers. There are three sections to each guide: Introduction - includes advice on how to use the guide, an explanation of the skills being tested by the assessment objectives, an outline of the unit or module and, depending on the unit, suggestions for how to revise effectively and prepare for the examination questions. Content Guidance - provides an examiner's overview of the module's key terms and concepts and identifies opportunities to exhibit the skills required by the unit. It is designed to help students to structure their revision and make them aware of the concepts they need to understand the exam and how they might analyse and evaluate topics. Question and Answers - sample questions and with graded answers which have been carefully written to reflect the style of the unit. All responses are accompanied by commentaries which highlight their respective strengths and weaknesses, giving students an insight into the mind of the examiner.
