South East Asia

Travels with the Lonely Planet guidebook that started it all. When Tony Wheeler wrote Lonely Planet's first-ever shoestring guidebook, South-East Asia offered 'cheap and interesting travel without the constantly oppressing misery of some of the less fortunate parts of Asia'. Certain 'hotspots' in the region attracted the tourist crowds, but there were many 'untouched places' too. So have Tony's recommendations stood the test of time? Just how much has South-East Asia changed since the Wheelers ambled through the region in flared pants? Brian Thacker decides to retrace Tony and Maureen's footsteps through Portuguese Timor, Indonesia, Singapore, Malaysia, Thailand, Laos and Burma using the original 1975 South east Asia on a Shoestring as his only guidebook. Along the way Brian meets a cast of folk from the old guidebook who are still manning hotel desks and serving in restaurants. He also encounters mishap and adventure at every step of the Banana Pancake Trail - breaking bread with a gang of ravenous rats; swimming with a hungry goat-and-possibly-also-human-eating crocodile; crashing his scooter (twice); being wanted by the police and propositioned by Gary who likes 'pens', and getting lost everywhere . . .

The Vanlife Companion

From Austin to Bogota, Vienna to Wellington, discover the best day and weekend trips within three hours of 60 of Lonely Planet's favourite cities. With sights, activities and hidden gems - all built around themes like art & culture, the outdoors, and food & drink - you'll find amazing ideas for your next city escape or long stopover, as well as new experiences to enjoy near where you live. Most of the 60 cities in this book could fill a lifetime with new experiences, but a short journey by either train, bus or car opens a world beyond to explore. In Three Hours From we hope to inspire you to look beyond the city limits for your next adventure. Whether you're in Delhi, Vancouver, Brisbane or Rome, and whether you live there, work there, are on vacation or are simply passing through with a day to kill, we encourage you to widen your net. Just an hour and 40 minutes from Cape Town you can spy breaching whales from the cliff path at Hermanus; within two hours of Manhattan you can be surfing at Rockaway Beach; and near Beijing you can choose between rafting a scenic gorge, visiting Jin-era temples or hiking along the Great Wall. Each of the 60 cities is presented with a map of the surrounding area, pinpointed with up to 18 of the most exciting things to do within three hours travel time. These are colour-coded by theme so you can easily find what you're interested in - be that outdoor pursuits, arts and culture, history, festivals and events, film and music, or food and drink. Special sections include

The Rough Guide to Southeast Asia On A Budget

Backpackers Guide to Southeast Asia, updated for 2019 & 2020. Written by budget travellers for budget travellers. It aims to give first-time backpackers in the region a basic overview of what to expect in Southeast Asia. It focuses on the things you need to know in a concise manner rather than going into great detail on every single possible destination. To read from cover to cover it may take only around 3 hours and it should act as a reliable point of reference that will assist you in the planning phase ahead of your trip and also be a handy resource when you're out on the road. It includes backpacking routes for Thailand, Cambodia, Laos, Vietnam, Myanmar, Indonesia & The Philippines with suggested budget hostels for every destination. There's info on visa rules, border crossings, vaccinations, malaria, money and typical backpacker budgets in each country and for the entire region. We list SE Asia's cultural highlights and best festivals (where & when 2019 & 2020) plus the best destinations for adventure activities including rafting, skydiving & skuba-diving. It also counts down the top 10 party towns and lists all the full moon party dates 2019-20. Finally we answer some FAQ's from first-time travellers in Southeast Asia. Please Note - This is as an updated version of our 2017-18 guide. Changes include the introduction of a new section with tips on how to stick to a shoestring budget. We've also updated our hostel suggestions, budgets and exchange rates to reflect developments across the region since the last version was published and information is up-to-date as of October 2018. It is primarily geared for younger independent backpackers (18-35) however we hope older travellers will find it useful too :)

File Type PDF Southeast Asia On A Shoestring Lonely Planet China Williams
