Do you get up every morning, spend close to an hour or more getting ready, pick out the perfect outfit, make sure your makeup is suitable, then style your hair just so? Do you slip your feet into your favorite heels, lock your modest one-bedroom apartment, climb into your practical car? Do you drive twenty minutes to downtown, find a spot in the company parking garage? If you do, then you're very much like me. However, I think our stories will differ significantly once you get to your office and I get to mine. Sure, it's possible you work in a high-rise office building in the heart of downtown. It could be any downtown office in any big city, in fact. New York, Chicago, Dallas. The location doesn't matter. It's even feasible to think that you're a secretary for a multibillion-dollar PR firm. You could even have four bosses like I do. Four mouthwatering male bosses, even. But, like I said, at that point, our stories will likely be drastically different. In order for you to understand why, I'll have to start at the beginning
